Action, Discussion: 2.3 Approval, Denial, or Modification of Report and Recommendation in 2020-13 Makon Hap Inc. (dba Fujiyama's Steakhouse), 2020-14 Mendez Family Inc. (dba Sergio's Cantina), and 2020-15 Don Sol Inc. (dba Don Sol)

The Commission asked why the fines were forgiven; City Manager Williams indicated that Staff understood the position to receive cooperation, as opposed to the fines. Commissioners indicated their support for or opposition to waiving the fines. Assistant City Attorney Parker provided additional clarification regarding the hearings for the businesses holding liquor licenses. The Commission inquired about the delay between the warning letter and issuance of violations, asked about progressive discipline and future reprimands if the businesses are found in violation, asked about Ordinance Violation fee structures, why liquor licensed establishments received both Ordinance Violation and Liquor Violation, whether the liquor violations should be considered if the Ordinance Violations are being dismissed, indicated that they hoped if this issue should arise again, that the State will offer enforcement mechanisms, that the Health Department should enforce violations, or the City should enforce and there should be no delay. The matter of revisiting a business license for the City was raised.

MOTION: Approve the Report and Recommendation based on the stipulated agreements in 2020-13 Makon Hap Inc. dba Fujiyama's Steakhouse, 2020-14 Mendez Family Inc. dba Sergio's Cantina, and 2020-15 Don Sol Inc. dba Don Sol as none of them have had any liquor license violations within the past 5 years.

Motion by Carolin Harvey, second by Lee Fronabarger.
